SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

MEXICAN IN TOILS—Sexto Lopez, charged with selling liquor to an Indian, was held to answer to the federal grand jury yesterday, to await a further investigation of the charge. Lopez, who was arrested by Morgan Top Rock, escaped and was recaptured later. He claims his arrest is the result of mistaken identity.

LEAVES FOR PHOENIX—Judge J. C. Evans of Roosevelt left for Phoenix yesterday morning. He will take in the fair and also the meeting of the democratic central committee, which will be held tomorrow.

BUILDING GOES UP—The erecting of the walls of the new fish building is under way, and within the next few days this structure will be ready for the roof. The erection of this building marks another step in the building up of South Broad street.

READ FOR JAIL WORK—The concrete mixer of the Globe Brick & Construction company was moved to the site of the new county jail yesterday and within the next few days actual construction work on this structure will supplant the preliminaries which have been in progress for the past week.

MERRITT WILL TRAVEL—County Assessor R. E. Merritt will leave today for Winkelman and Dripping Springs, to look after county business. He will be absent for the greater part of the week.

DIES AT HOSPITAL—Joseph Driscoll, aged 45, died at the county hospital yesterday, of consumption. Driscoll had been ill for only a few days and he entered the hospital only a few hours before his death. The deceased was a native of Canada and is said to have been a miner.

ENGINEER IN CITY—J. B. Barlow, the well known engineer of the Southern Pacific company, arrived here last night. He will spend a short time in this city.

MRS. COWAN PAROLED—Mrs. Catherine Cowan, a woman with an unsavory reputation, whose last incarceration in jail was due to a drunk and disorderly conviction, was paroled yesterday by Judge Hinson Thomas. The woman promised to leave Globe for good if she was given her liberty.

DOMINION ARRIVALS—A. M. Gillespie, Silver City; J. J. Smith, Tucson; R. C. Sparks, Winkelman; J. C. Hershey, Duluth; A. J. Ekeland, New York; C. Foorman, San Francisco; William Sparks, Mazatlan; H. H. Dunn, Milwaukee; A. Miller, Tucson; V. O. Morse, El Paso; Arthur Painter, San Francisco; J. C. Barlow, El Paso.

COMPLETE NEW YARD—The new yard of the Whalley Lumber company, on South Broad street opposite the Gila Valley shops, has undergone a complete change in appearance within the past few weeks, practically all of the proposed new buildings having been completed. All that remains to complete the yard is to install the machinery for the planing mill, which will be put in place as soon as it arrives, which will probably be within the next two weeks.

REVIVAL SERVICES—The revival now being held at the Methodist church begins at 7:30 each evening. Tonight the pastor will speak on the Beatitudes and Mr. Alfred Seoble will sing "Let the Lower Lights be Burning." The service begins with a praise service. The pictures are beautiful and instructive. The expenses were provided for before the meetings began, so there will be no collections. Everyone is urged to be present.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED—D. Keck, arrested on a vagrancy charge was given a thirty day suspended sentence by Judge Hinson Thomas yesterday. Keck was given a chance to retain his liberty, on condition that he would cease to frequent the tenderloin.

NEW DELACEY HOUSE—Is now open in new Amster block, Broad and Bailey. Smith cafe on ground floor.

TEACHERS PASS THROUGH—A party of teachers from Thatcher and vicinity passed through here yesterday on their way to Phoenix to attend the institute. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rhoads and child, Miss Maude Wellborn and Mr. Austin Rhoads and little Master Rhoads' nurse.

RAILROAD MAN LEAVES—R. S. Stubbs, general freight and passenger agent for the Randolph lines, returned to Tucson Sunday morning after spending a few days in this vicinity investigating local conditions.

TO VISIT FAIR—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hayes and Mr. Hayes' mother left Sunday morning for Phoenix, where they will attend the fair and also visit relatives and friends. Mr. Hayes and his mother had just returned from Sherman, Texas, where he had gone to meet her when she came from South Carolina a few weeks ago, and where they had visited at the home of Mr. Hayes' sister.

RETURN FROM EL PASO—Misses Ada Carvill, Ruby Johnson, Evelyn Crampton and Margaret Cole returned Sunday evening from their trip to El Paso, where they had spent a week. Mrs. F. D. Smith, who had chaperoned the party, joined Professor Smith at Bowie and accompanied him to Phoenix, leaving Mrs. J. P. Schafer to chaperon the young ladies during the remainder of the journey.

WIFE CHARGED WITH INHUMANITY AND CRUELTY

Fred Golden Brings Suit to Annul Marriage With Josephine Golden

Charging his wife with extreme cruelty, Fred H. Golden filed suit for divorce against Josephine Golden yesterday.

Golden claims that since his marriage to the defendant that she has willfully disregarded the marriage vows and treated him in an inhuman manner. He claims that she has, at various times within the past year, struck and beat him, called him vile names, threatened to kill him and in addition, brought improper characters into their home.

All of these things, Golden claims, make it unsafe for him to live with his wife.

He asks for $5,000, which he claims to be his share of the community property, as well as the care and custody of the two minor children, Winnifred, aged six, and Fred R., Jr., aged four. Mrs. Golden filed suit against her husband some time ago, but later withdrew the complaint.

Golden has been locked up several times within the last few months on charges of being drunk and disorderly, these charges having been made by his wife, in some cases.

Walter G. Scott represents the plaintiff.

SYDOR AND STERNS SUE GLOBE BEER ASSOCIATION

Claim Corporation Fails to Properly Recognize Stock in Association

Claiming that the Retail Liquor Dealers' Beer association of this city has refused to accredit them with stock purchased in that concern shortly after its incorporation, and that a merger of that company with the Globe Ice & Cold Storage company will cause the entire loss of this stock, A. W. Sydnor and A. H. Sterns have filed suit against that company.

Sydnor and Sterns in their complaint allege that they purchased one share of stock valued at $100 in the beer association, in 1900, shortly after the incorporation of that company.

In June of that year, it is claimed, a dividend of $150 was paid them on that stock.

The plaintiffs claim that although they have not disposed of their stock, which they claim is now valued at $5,000, that the defendant company, through its officers, has stricken their names from its records and refuses to recognize them as stockholders.

It is further claimed that when a merger between the Retail Liquor Dealers' Beer association and the Globe Ice & Cold Storage company is effected that they will be excluded from that company and that the stock now held by them will be lost and that they will be excluded from participation into the affairs of the new company.

The plaintiffs ask that the court declare them joint owners of the stock which they claim is held by them, and that the officers of the company be compelled to recognize them as members of that corporation.

Attorney F. C. Jacobs represents the plaintiffs.

BRAIN CONCUSSION CAUSED DEATH

New Facts Brought Out Concerning Death of Morton McGinley

At an inquest held over the remains of Morton McGinley, at Copper Hill Sunday, additional facts concerning the cause of his death Saturday evening were learned.

McGinley fell only a distance of about fifteen feet, having been working on the 700 instead of the 600 foot level at the time of the accident. He fell on the back of his head, a concussion of the brain causing his death.

Coroner A. M. Lufkin of Copper Hill conducted the inquest. A verdict of death as the result of an accidental fall was returned.

McGinley leaves a wife and two small children at Copper Hill.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Catholic church under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, of which order the deceased was a member.

MEETING POSTPONED

Chamber of Commerce Will Probably Name Officers Next Tuesday

Owing to the interference of the territorial fair and its several counter attractions, the annual meeting of the chamber of commerce, which was to have been held tonight, has again been postponed.

No formal call has as yet been issued for this meeting, but it will, in all probability, be held a week from tonight.

At this meeting the regular election of officers will be held and in addition, it is probable that a number of important questions will be taken up and the opinion of the chamber placed on record concerning them.

CUT WIFE'S DRESS

Accusation Will Figure in Healey vs. Healey Divorce Case

The accusation against Fred Healey that in a fit of anger he cut to pieces several of his wife's dresses, figures in a divorce suit filed against Healey yesterday by his wife, Lottie Healey.

Mrs. Healey alleges non support and extreme cruelty as grounds for a divorce.

She claims that for more than a year Healey has failed to support her and that on July 3rd, last, he cut to pieces several of her dresses and when she remonstrated, grabbed her and choked her, at the same time threatening to cut her throat and "break her damned head."

Aside from decree of divorce, Mrs. Healey asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name, Lottie Lane.

Norman J. Johnson represents the plaintiff.

AGED MAN IS FOUND DEAD IN BED

John A. Kimball Suddenly Expires in His Room Yesterday

John A. Kimball, aged 66, was found dead in a rooming house on Pine street in the rear of the Dominion hotel, yesterday. Heart disease is said to have been the cause of his death.

Kimball had been in Globe for about six months. He was taken ill Sunday, but his condition was not considered serious. His failure to make an appearance yesterday excited suspicion, however, and when an investigation was made he was found dead in bed.

Judge Hinson Thomas, acting as coroner, made an investigation of the case, but as death was clearly from natural causes no inquest was held.
